

ECLIPSE USEFUL RESOURCES

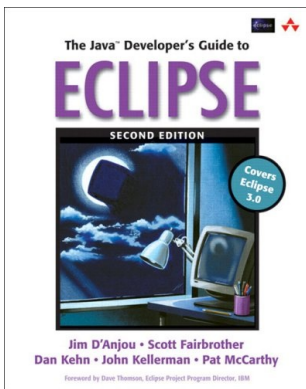

http://www.tutorialspoint.com/eclipse/eclipse_useful_resources.htm

Copyright © tutorialspoint.com

If you want to list down your website, book or any other resource on this page then please contact at webmaster@tutorialspoint.com

- Eclipse Documentation \(Current Release\) - Documentation for the current release of Eclipse. The Workbench User Guide section has a lot of useful information for Java Developers.
- Eclipse Community Forums - These forums allow you to ask technical questions to a community of people developing and using Eclipse. The Java Development Forum is a useful forum for people using the Eclipse IDE for Java development.
- Eclipse Marketplace - The Eclipse Marketplace allows you to locate and download Eclipse plug-ins.

Useful Books on Eclipse IDE

 The book cover for 'Eclipse Cookbook' by Steve Holzner, published by O'Reilly. It features a purple background with a white title and a small illustration of a shrimp at the top right. The subtitle reads 'Task-Oriented Solutions to Over 175 Common Problems'.	 The book cover for 'The Java Developer's Guide to Eclipse' by Jim D'Anjou, Scott Fairbrother, Dan Kehn, John Kellerman, and Pat McCarthy. It is the second edition, published by No Starch Press. The cover features a blue background with a white title and a small illustration of a computer monitor and a lamp.	 The book cover for 'Eclipse in Action' by David Gallardo, Ed Burnette, and Robert McGovern, published by Manning. It features a green background with a white title and a small illustration of a man in a blue robe and turban.
 The book cover for 'Practical Eclipse Rich Client Platform Projects' by Vladimir Silva, published by Apress. It features a black background with a white title and a small illustration of a colorful abstract shape at the top right. The subtitle reads 'Delivers all the tools you need to build commercial-quality applications with the Eclipse Rich Client Platform'.	 The book cover for 'Eclipse for Dummies' by Barry Burd, published by Wiley. It features a yellow background with a black title and a small illustration of a man with glasses and a lightbulb above his head. The subtitle reads 'The fun and easy way to get up and running with this popular Java IDE'.	 The book cover for 'Professional Eclipse 3 for Java Developers' by Benfield Damm, published by Wiley. It features a red background with a white title and a small illustration of a man with a beard and a lightbulb above his head. The subtitle reads 'With tips and tricks to maximize your programming productivity'.